26 Stock brief

The recent retreat from 117.50-67.00 is making a swift recovery that has pushed price above the averages. Momentum has been strong during this upside from 67.00 and while the RSI stands overbought, further upside is making headway.

The decline has corrected 38.2% at 86.30 yesterday but the buildup is looking towards 92.25 - 98.20 over the short-term. Due to overbought momentum price may pullback to test levels around 81.00-83.00 while key support trails along the shorter averages.
