26 Stock brief

A long-term bear trend from 48.96 (Mar. '24) formed a double bottom at 15.70 between March and July this year. Thus, the downtrend has stalled and looking to define a bottom that needs confirmation for a turnaround to develop. This double bottom faces resistance at 19.93 to overcome for the pattern to come in effect.

This resistance coincides with the 200-dema, emphasizing on its role as a key upward trigger to break past, Immediate moves are looking to test 19.93 and the key average. Ability to hold above 19.93 would target upside at 24.16. Till then a sideways trend between 15.70-19.93 is in motion with inner support around 17.30.
