22Market brief

Resistance at the 90-dema comes in play restricting opening gains from following through over Wednesday's session. The last session also corrected the downtrend from 11,592-10,947 by 38.2% at 10,915. Thursday formed a bearish engulfing candlestick pattern that highlights the recent recovery from 10,497-10,910 to correct.

Immediate downside against this recovery comes at the trend-line support around 10,780 and further at the 38.2% retracement level of 10,752. Thursday's high of 10,910 now stands as resistance to overcome for advancements towards the 200-dema and above. Immediate resistance comes at the mid-point of Thursday's candlestick body at 10,855.
